A troop of adventurous arrivals is shaking up the Latin American scene.

HONDURAS Set on a scoop of beach right next to the tropical Punta Lzopo national park on the Caribbean coast, Indura Resort is a fly-and-flop with edge. There's a spa chock-full of ESPA, howler monkeys leap about on the grass-roofed casitas, panthers stalk through the jungle, and in the sea you'll find one of the largest colonies of healthy Elkhorn coral.
