Get In On the Ground Floor of Indura Resort, Central America's New 'Natural' Golf Option

Slated to open in early 2014, Indura Resort & Spa is Central America's new luxury hotel situated along the Caribbean Sea on a 26-mile stretch of Honduras' Telas Bay. Composed of 60 junior suite accommodations, a Gary Player designed 18-hole eco-sensitive golf course managed by Troon, and a wellness sanctuary offering ESPA treatments and products, the resort is a new discovery for travelers who are seeking an off-the-beaten path destination along with a dose of light adventure. Conveniently located one hour's drive from San Pedro Sula airport, yet feeling a world apart, you'll experience a lush tropical landscape and beach along with scenic mountain views.
